DAY 07 Aswan

Today is free at leisure.

Recommended optional activities, joining local groups: 1. Abu Simbel, $165 per person. The twin temples of Ramesses II and Queen Nefertari are among Egypt's best-known ancient monuments. 2. Nubian village, $65 per person, known for colorful houses, distinctive cultural traditions and crocodile symbolism.

B, L, D. Overnight: deluxe Nile cruise.

DAY 08 Aswan / Cairo

After breakfast, disembark and visit the Aswan High Dam, built initially in the 1960s to control the Nile's destructive floods. See the obelisk, an ancient monument associated with sun worship, and Philae Temple, known for its architecture, carved stonework and mythological reliefs. Transfer to the airport in the afternoon and fly to Cairo. Meet the arrival transfer and continue to the hotel.

The one-way Aswan-Cairo flight and one checked bag up to 20 kg are included.

B, L. Hotel: Ramses Hilton, Hilton Grand Nile or similar.

DAY 09 Cairo

After breakfast, visit the Citadel of Saladin, also known as the Cairo Citadel. Its historical remains include the aqueduct, Joseph's Well and the National Military Museum. In the afternoon, visit the Egyptian Museum, with a broad collection illustrating Egyptian history and culture, including the artifacts described in the tour itinerary.

B, L, D. Hotel: Ramses Hilton, Hilton Grand Nile or similar.

DAY 10 Cairo - Memphis - Cairo

After breakfast, drive to Memphis, one of the world's oldest cities. Visit its partly open-air museum, including the giant statue of Ramesses II. See the Giza Pyramid complex and Sphinx, including the pyramids of Khufu, Khafre and Menkaure, surrounded by smaller pyramids and mastaba tombs. Return to Cairo. In the afternoon, explore the old city and the Hanging Church, with its wall paintings, ivory-inlaid sanctuary screen and marble pulpit. Continue to the historic Khan el-Khalili bazaar.

B, L, D. Hotel: Ramses Hilton, Hilton Grand Nile or similar.

DAY 11 Cairo / Home

After breakfast, transfer to the airport at the arranged group departure time for your flight home.
